Transporter:

Transporting clients to and from appointments is an important part in the process of making major life changes and/or starting over a new life. The Center for Safety & Change provides transportation during the day and evening times, as well as on weekends.

Requirements:

- Day-time and evenings
- Drives clients to appointments: such as court, doctor, support group, apartment hunting, etc.
- Car will be provided
- Must have valid driver's license
- Background check required

Child Care:

The Center for Safety & Change provides child care for residential and non-residential clients at the Emergency Shelter or at the main office while mothers attend appointments and during support groups.

Requirements:

- Day-time and evenings (or as needed basis)
- Engage and supervise children in activities, including homework, music, crafts, sports, etc.
- Background check required

Hotline/Clerical Help:

The Center for Safety & Change runs a 24-hour hotline (845) 634-3344, which is answered at the main office in New City during regular business hours and at the Emergency Shelter after business hours. Volunteers are needed to ensure each call gets answered and directed appropriately. Additionally, the office needs help with clerical tasks such as filing, mailings, data entry and similar work.

Requirements:

- Day-time and evenings
- Weekday and weekends

Fundraising/Outreach:

- About 30% of the agency's budget is raised through special events and private donations. The staff and Board of Directors oversee and organize most of the events with the help of volunteers. Volunteering opportunities vary from helping to organize events to setting up during the day of the event and cleaning up, and much more. Additionally, volunteers are needed to staff tables at various community events to distribute materials about the agency and its services.

Requirements:

- Day-time and evenings
- Weekday and weekends

The Center for Safety & Change appreciates its volunteers!! Thank you for your interest.
