COMPETITION THEME/BACKGROUND:

The theme of the Center for Safety & Change Student Art Competition is: Ending Violence Against Women & Girls Domestic (DV) or intimate partner violence (IPV) is a historically rooted social pattern that grows out of and supports gender inequity. Most IPV victims are female. DV appears as tactics and behaviors used by an intimate partner or ex-partner to control & intimidate his or her partner. Tactics may include emotional, physical, financial and sexual abuse. IPV occurs in heterosexual and same sex relationships.

- Battering is the single major cause of injury to women, more frequent than auto accidents, muggings and rapes combined. Approximately 95% of the victims of domestic violence are women.
- In the United States, a woman is more likely to be assaulted, injured, raped or killed by a her intimate partner than by any other type of assailant.
- According to the American Medical Association, nearly one-quarter of women in the United States, more than 12 million women, will be abused by a current or former intimate partner during their lives.
- The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) reports that 50% of female homicide victims are killed by their husbands or boyfriends.

HOW TO ENTER:

1. Submit the artwork entry along with a completed Center for Safety & Change Student Art Competition Entry Form to the teacher or advisor at your school, club or organization who is supervising your entries.
2. Make sure the name of the artist and school is printed on the back of each artwork entry.
3. The entry form must be signed by both the artist and the parent/guardian and submitted no later than Friday, May 3, 2019.
4. All entry forms must be securely attached to the back of the submitted piece or it will not be accepted. When submitting multiple pieces of artwork, please attach an entry form to each piece.
5. Entries using copyrighted images, logos, etc. will NOT be accepted.

WHAT MAKES A GOOD POSTER?

1. Short, catchy message than can be interpreted in 10 seconds
2. Use of colors and white space to grab viewer's attention
3. Creative design that captures the essence of the theme
4. Large pictures that convey a powerful anti-violence theme

JUDGING

Judges for the Center for Safety & Change Student Art Competition will include local artists, CSC staff, student volunteers and/or Board members and volunteers.

Their decisions will be based on the following:

1. Does the design capture the competition theme?
2. Originality
3. Adaptability of the design for marketing and merchandising purposes.

The winners of the art competition will be announced on May 10, 2019. Winners will be notified in writing.

RETURN OF ARTWORK

All artwork will become the sole property of CSC and will not be returned to the artist. By entering the CSC Student Art Competition, each artist irrevocably assigns and transfers to CSC all past, present and future rights, title and interest, including but not limited to any copyright in his/her artwork if such artwork is selected as the winning entry or for honorable mention. The winning and honorable mention artwork may be used for promotional purposes. However, CSC is not obligated to use the winning or honorable mention artwork in any way. If students want their artwork returned please indicate so. CSC will make every attempt to return all those to the artist by delivering it to the supervising teacher/advisor.
