

THE ROCKLAND PRISON JUSTICE ADVOCACY GROUP INVITES YOU TO

 PRACTICES IN
RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

A New Paradigm for Crime and Punishment

SUNDAY • NOVEMBER 13, 2016 • 7PM

THE NYACK CENTER • 58 DEPEW AVENUE • NYACK, NY 10960

MC and Moderator, Shailly Agnihotri, Founder and E.D. of the Restorative Center, has been a prosecuting attorney, public defender and educator. She is dedicated to explore, develop and advocate for non-punitive responses to crime and punishment so that individuals and communities can restore and heal, even after criminal behavior.

SPECIAL GREETING and Introduction by Ritchie Torres Council Member for the 15th District of the New York City Council.

Tarik Greene
*Deputy Director
MADE Transitional Services*

Colleen Kelly
*Co-Founder
9/11 Families
for a Peaceful Tomorrow*

Elaine Lord
*Superintendent
Retired
Bedford Hills
Correctional Facility*

Tyrell Muhammed
*Project Associate
for the Prison
Visiting Project Correctional Association*

Kiera Pollock, LMSW
*Deputy E.D. of Programs
and Clinical Services
Center for Safety and Change*

Priscilla Prutzman
*Executive Director
Creative Response to Conflict*

For more information: email RocklandPrisonJusticeAdvocacy@gmail.com or call 845-358-2600

Suggested Donation $10 to benefit:
Family Connections - the Nyack Center's program for Incarcerated Families