LEGAL ADVOCATE

Posting Date: March 13, 2024
Position Title: Legal Advocate
Classification: Non-exempt status
Reports to: Supervising Attorney, Family & Matrimonial Law
Anticipated Start: April 1, 2024

JOB HIGHLIGHTS: The Legal Advocate provides advocacy for survivors of domestic violence, including providing support, information, and court accompaniment for civil, criminal, and other court-related matters. The Advocate also provides support for the agency's attorneys, and coordinates Family, Supreme, or other Court matters for the agency's clients.

This is a full-time, 35-hour per week, non-exempt position that reports to the Supervising Attorney, Family & Matrimonial Law.

LOCATION: This opportunity is an in-person role based in Rockland County – New City, New York.

YOU'LL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR...

- Providing services in a manner that is survivor-driven and specific to the needs and priorities of each survivor.
- Advocating for survivors in Family Court matters, including assisting them with their cases, informing them of their rights, options, and possible outcomes, and providing guidance, referrals, and court accompaniment.
- Interfacing with the Judges, Court Clerks, Assistant District Attorneys, Attorneys, Police, and Probation Office to provide support and ongoing information to survivors.
- Assisting survivors in filling out court related paperwork for court submission, including but not limited to: Petitions, Information Registry Forms, 18B applications, SCU addendums, and Address Confidentiality Affidavits,
- Under attorney supervision, preparing legal forms, and other writings in connection with legal proceedings
- Conducting legal intakes, conflict checks, prescreens, and providing safety planning.
- Maintaining accurate files and applicable Apricot notes.
- Developing ongoing relationships with other departments within and outside the agency to provide a holistic approach in working with survivors.

- Working with the agency's attorneys to assist clients with their legal needs and to help ensure all court deadlines are met, documents are filed and submitted to court in a timely manner.
- Being punctual in returning phone calls, answering client questions, and scheduling client meetings.
- Coordinating client services with other agency programs, including with advocates from other programs, to ensure holistic services.
- Keeping updated and current on relevant issues by attending substantive trainings and staff meetings.
- Complying with the legal team policies, procedures, and best practices.
- Other duties as assigned.

YOU MUST HAVE...

- An Associate's Degree in Psychology, Criminal Justice, Sociology or a related field, plus 1-2 years of related experience required; Bachelor's Degree preferred.
- Experience/familiarity with the court system.
- Bilingual Spanish/English fluency (speaking, reading and writing) a plus.
- The ability to work in a fast paced, crisis oriented environment: assess priorities, take initiative, handle multiple assignments and meet deadlines.
- The ability to work collaboratively in a multi-disciplinary environment.
- The ability to attend all agency-required trainings, including a weeklong onboarding training at the Residential Shelter.
- While performing the duties of this job, the employee must possess the ability to communicate with staff and clients. Some occasional lifting may be required (please speak with Human Resources to request accommodations).
- A valid driver's license and access to reliable, insured transportation are required.

YOU'LL BE SUCCESSFUL IF...

As a passionate advocate for social justice, you adopt an anti-racist and anti-oppression lens to understand gender-based violence. You recognize that victims and survivors come to the Center while navigating different structural and social injustices that affect their experiences of survivorship. You also understand that this work requires an ongoing commitment to developing the language and tools we need to undo institutional oppression. You are flexible and work well as part of a team and independently. You have excellent time-management skills and a demonstrated ability to multi-task. You are accountable for doing what you say you are going to do.

TEAM OVERVIEW: The Center's Legal Advocate is a key position within the Legal Services team.
